

Science Standard:
What are students expected to know?	What are students expected to be able to do?
What background knowledge do students need to meet this standard?
What are some potential obstacles?	What are some possible positive outcomes?